Date: Thursday 16 March
Time: 15:00 – 19:00hrs
Trainer: Kevin Spiteri

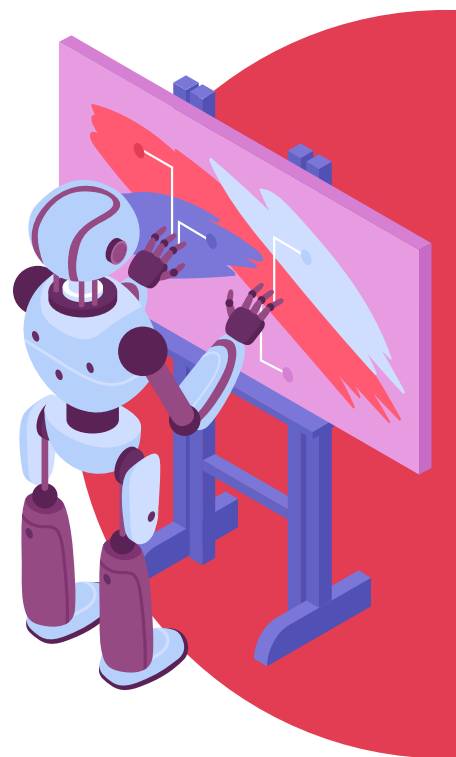

DIGITAL TOOLS FOR COLLABORATION AND COMMUNICATION IN THE ENGLISH LANGUAGE CLASSROOM

ABSTRACT

During this session you will gain a comprehensive understanding of the potential of digital tools for collaboration and communication, and learn about effective strategies for integrating them into your teaching practice. Drawing on case studies and practical examples, you'll have the opportunity to observe how other teachers have successfully implemented digital tools and to apply your own learning through hands-on exercises. By the conclusion of the workshop, you'll have acquired knowledge of the latest platforms and tools available, and will be equipped with valuable insights for using them to facilitate student learning and engagement in the English language classroom.

ARTIFICIAL INTELLIGENCE: PATH TO TEACHER REDUNDANCY OR EFFICIENCY

ABSTRACT

Are you worried about the potential impact of artificial intelligence (AI) on the English language teaching profession? Join our workshop to gain an overview of AI and its potential applications in the English language classroom. Through discussions, demonstrations and a bit of hands-on practice you'll explore the potential implications of AI for English language teachers and receive a high-level overview of strategies for incorporating AI into teaching practice in a way that enhances, rather than replaces, the teacher's role.

ABOUT KEVIN SPITERI

Kevin Spiteri is a founder and director of Level Academy, HR Consulta, and TETRA, with extensive experience in education consultancy, teacher training, and course evaluation. He has worked in various capacities, including director of studies, ELT teacher, academic year coordinator, and activities manager, in a range of educational institutions, including EC Malta, Corporate Communications Budapest, and City of London College, Istanbul. As a founder and director of education and HR consultancy firms, Kevin Spiteri has gained practical experience in providing solutions to the challenges faced by educators and learners in adapting to the digital age. He has an open mindset and awareness of the opportunities of training tools and delves into best practices on how to support trainers in developing the skills essential for teachers and students in today's digital environment.
