

Teach English in Malta this Summer

Discover Malta's rich history, vibrant culture, and unforgettable Mediterranean summer — all while teaching in a bustling ELT environment that comes alive during the summer months.

With flexible opportunities ranging from a few weeks to short-term engagements, you can combine a rewarding teaching experience with a unique holiday.

TEACH. TRAVEL. EXPERIENCE MALTA.

Malta's language travel industry is an important contributor to the economy. Around 85,000 students from more than 40 countries visit Malta every year to learn English and benefit from a range of leisure and cultural activities. More than 31 schools offer students a host of services and these require hundreds of people employed in a variety of roles.

ELT Permit Requirements:

- An A-Level in English (minimum Grade C) or a pass in the Test of English for Teachers (TELT).
AND
 - TEFL Award
OR
- An international ELT certificate (MQF Level 5), e.g., Cambridge CELTA or Cert. TESOL.
AND
 - Spoken English Proficiency Test for Teachers (SEPTT)
